DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Med Staff)
CHLORODYNE,
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W P Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE: that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr J Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne: that they prescribe it largely and mean no other than Dr Browne's—See TIMES, July 12, 1864.

The Public therefore are cautioned against using any other than

DR J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, or freshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the nervous system restores the deranged functions and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvelous good effects and wonderful cures while medical men extol its virtues most extensively using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Diseases in which it is found eminently useful—Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, Coughs, Asthma Crump Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cough, Hysteria, be

The Right Hon Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J T Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet Dec 31, 1864.

From A Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay: Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy for Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months esvere suffering, and when other medicines had failed

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India reports (Dec 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr Collis Browne's Chlorodyne was administered the patient recovered.

Extract from Medical Times, Jan 10, 1866—Chlorodyneis prescribed by scores of orthodox remedical praditioners. Of course it would not thus be singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place.

Extract from the general Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

Beware of spurious and dangerous compounds sold as CHLORODYNE from which frequen tfatal results have followed

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug 1, 1869, which states that Dr J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne: that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered. Sold in bottles at 1s 1½d, 2s 9d, 4s 6d, and 11s each.

CAUTION—None genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle,

L. P. FISHER, 20 and 21 New Merchants' Exchange is our authorized Agent in San Francisco.

"THE ROW AT VICTORIA."

We have before us an article, under the quoted heading, taken from the San Francisco Alta of the 30th ult. The article is devoted to the consideration of our little unpleasantness with Canada and takes the part of the Province in the quarrel with its big brothers of the East. The writer assumes that the "Cabinet that promised to build the railway in ten years, was either dishonest or inexcusably ignorant," because the "obligation could not by any possibility be fulfilled." The Province, he claims, was "inveigled" with soft words into the Confederacy; and although he was sufficiently astute to "predict" six years ago, the failure of the scheme, he thinks that the fatuous ignorance of Columbians as to the resources of Canada was excusable, inasmuch as they knew very little of the world—had not cut their wisdom teeth. Having absolved Columbia from censure, the writer goes on to suggest that the manly course for Canada to pursue was to have "requested to be released, inviting the Pacific Colony to consent to the formation of a new agreement in practicable terms, satisfactory to both parties; and until the conclusion of such agreement British Columbia could, if she wished, consider herself free from all obligations to and political connection with the Dominion." There is a third party to the agreement that must have been consulted before secession would be possible, and that party is Great Britain, which the Alta writer does not take into consideration at all. He regards the misunderstanding as one in which Canada and Columbia are alone concerned, and with all his great knowledge and political foresight ignores the endorsing power altogether. His ignorance overwhelms his argument. Columbia joined the Confederation under an Imperial arrangement, and until that arrangement shall have been cancelled by the Imperial authorities there can be no withdrawal—no secession. People here understand their position if the Guidnunc of the Alta does not. A temporary withdrawal would be as fatal to the integrity and prestige of the Dominion as a permanent secession. The American Union was formed with certain sovereign rights of each State in reserve, the chief of which was that upon a majority or two-thirds vote of the people of a State that State might withdraw from the Union. But when the Southern States sought to avail themselves of the reserved right they were whipped back by the other States. Now, the situation of Columbia is widely different to that of the Southern States, which had no third party to fall back upon. Columbia may appeal to England, through her Legislature, for the fulfilment of Canada's treaty obligations, and Great Britain is bound to see that she is satisfied. The wind-up of the Alta's article is a direct bid for the annexation of the Province to the United States, which it ought to know—if it knows anything—is impracticable, however desirable it might be. There are none who wish to follow such will-o'-wisps as annexation. It is the pursuit of shadows that has brought the country to its present condition. There is a longing for something real and substantial in place of the delusive hopes that have turned the hearts of Provincialists sick for years past. Annexation is a dream destined never to be realized. Let us turn to the discussion of some practicable way out of our difficulty.

KOOTENAY ELECTION.

The election at Kootenay to fill the vacancy occasioned by Mr. Vowell's resignation has resulted in the election of Mr. Milby over Mr. Callbraith by the casting vote of the returning officer. The contest must have been very exciting, the number of votes being few, some 34 or 36. Both candidates are out-and out supporters of Mr. Elliott. The contest partook more of a personal than a political character, and the Returning Officer's task must have been far from agreeable. At the election last year at Kootenay the Returning Officer had to select from three candidates, each of whom received 16 votes, whilst the lowest on the list received 15 votes!

WARDLE.

SENATOR MACDONALD'S NEW RESIDENCE.

The new residence now in the course of erection at Ogden Point for the Hon. W. J. Macdonald will, when finished, present a very handsome and substantial appearance. The building, which may be termed a villa residence, is to be constructed of stone, and will consist of two stories standing 29 feet high with a main frontage on the beautiful sheet of water close to the entrance to Victoria harbor. The residence will be approached at the main entrance by steps leading to an enclosed porch which in turn will lead into a grand hallway 12 feet wide. Immediately on the left hand side of the hall will be a very handsome drawing-room 33ft. x18ft., having a circular front containing three large windows, and a fourth window on the west side of the building thus, rendering the room, which is entered by double sliding doors, light in addition to lofty—the ceiling being 12ft. 6in. high finished with ornamental cornice and centres. Next to the drawing-room, will be the library 14x18 with bay window. On the right side next the main entrance will be the dining-room 18x29, with large bay window fronting east and two other windows opening upon a verandah connected by steps with the lawn. The kitchen, approached from the dining room by a vestibule, will be 12x14 in extent, furnished with all the most desirable modern appliances and having a china-closet adjacent. A continued circular staircase with heavy hand-rail will lead from the hall to a 12ft. landing on the second story, on the west side of which will be an airy bedroom 18x26, having a circular front, corresponding with drawing-room below, and connecting with dressing-room 7x10 provided with linen closets, etc. On the same side there will be another bedroom 14 x 18 and immediately in front of the landing a third one 11 x 12 opening upon a balcony over the main entrance; on the east side three bedrooms 15 x 18—with bay window—10 x 14 and 12 x 13½ respectively. All the rooms upstairs will be furnished with convenient closets and have ceilings 11 ft. high. Close to the kitchen there will be a store-room, dairy, back-kitchen, coal and wood houses, etc., etc, a covered way from the main building leading to each. The residence, which stands on a plot of land 28 acres in extent, covers an area 64 x 51 exclusive of outhouses, is already "scaffold high" and is expected to be ready for occupation about next June. It will command beautiful views and be very pleasantly situated. Mr. W. H. Courtenay has the contract for stonework and Mr. Wm. Hick for blasting; other contracts have yet to be awarded. Thomas Trounce, Esq., Architect.

PUGET SOUND.—Seattle Tribune says:—The new steam tug Tacoma just from San Francisco did her first business on Thursday, taking the bark Caroline Reed and ship Shirley to sea as if they were no impediment at all....The first daily southern bound mail left Seattle on Friday last....Upwards of 900 Indians and 150 Chinese are engaged in Puyallup Valley hop picking; three or four hundred more pickers are wanted. In all 600 acres of land are under hop culture....Messrs. Murphy & Bagley publishers of the Olympian Standard and Courier and the Daily Olympian have dissolved partnership and the future state of the Olympian is a problem....The upper deck of the steamer Annie Stewart took fire at Port Townsend on Monday the 28th ult. Damage slight.... The Seattle Tribune says:—A man named Harrison left his home in the country last Tuesday to come to town, since which time he has not been heard from. As he was troubled with the heart disease, his friends fear that he died on the way in, shortly after leaving home. Search has been made for him, but so far without avail....In fingering in his vest pocket, this morning, for something there, Capt. Blinn, of the bark Jenny Pitts, exploded a giant powder cap, blowing off the greater portion of his forefinger, smaller parts of his thumb and middle finger, and giving himself a violent blow in the side.

ANOTHER ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—Look to your fastenings, examine your fowling-pieces and file the big bull-dog's teeth and turn him loose after dark, for burglars are "about." In addition to the attempt to enter Wilson's store on Monday night, Mr. H. Rudolph, the jeweler, yesterday morning discovered marks of a crowbar on the side door and casing of his establishment. The rogues had evidently tried to prise open the door. Had they got inside they would scarcely have been rewarded for their pains as all the valuables were contained in a substantial safe.

FOR NEW WESTMINSTER.—The steamer Enterprise left for New Westminster at 7:30 a. m. yesterday with a very few passengers, amongst whom were Messrs. Elwyn and A. J. McLellan. The lateness of the hour at which she sailed prevented many Victorians from being present at the reception of Lord Dufferin at the Royal City, consequently they stayed at home.

FOR THE NORTH.—The steamer Grappler is announced to leave for Fort Wrangel and Sitka on Friday next.

ADDITION TO THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.

On the 12th ultimo and in a subsequent issue of the COLONIST it was pointed out that the crowded state of the Lunatic Asylum on the Indian Reserve would inevitably necessitate further accomodation for the unfortunate inmates during the winter months. Yesterday the hon. Mr. Elliott visited the institution, and inspecsed the various wards, &c., with Mr. J.J. Downey, Superintendent. The Premier found that the statement made in these columns was only too correct and it has been decided that additional wards must be built on to the main building, more especially as the Asylum now in the course of erection at New Westminster, will not be completed until June next. Whatever sum the additions may cost, might have been saved to the country, had the late incompetent Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works selected a suitable site for the Mainland building in the first place, thus avoiding several months' delay in construction. Apart from the question of time it is feared, nay known, that the new structure on the banks of the Fraser will be utterly inadequate even when completed to the number of lunatics in existence at the time the foundation stone was laid, and since that time unfortunately an increase instead of a decrease has taken place. "Then what shall we do with our lunatics?" The only answer to this question is—extend the accomodation of the new building.

NAVAL ITEMS.—Capt. Kennedy, who was appointed to the flag-captaincy of the Shah under Rear-Admiral Hancock, will not come out in consequence of the change of Admiral, and is now on half-pay. This is to be regretted, as Captain Kennedy was one of the most popular officer and gentlemen ever on this station. The Army and Navy Gazette says:—Rear-Admiral the Hon. Arthur A. L. P. Cochrane, C. B., late Commander-in-Chief of the squadron in the Pacific, has, we understand received from the Admiralty a letter expressive of the satisfaction felt by their Lordships at the manner in which he conducted the duties of his command. During the period of his command Admiral Cochrane also received commendation from the Foreign Office as to his proceedings relative to the flogging of Mr. Magee, her Majesty's Consul at San Jose de Guatemala. In the letter from the Foreign Office, addressed to the Admiralty for the information of Admiral Cochrane, was the following flattering passage:—"Her Majesty's Government entirely approve his proceedings as reported in those dispatches, and they highly appreciate the energy, ability, and discretion shown by him in performing the important and delicate duty with which he was charged."

A HINT FOR THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT.—The cheap rate at which railroads can now be constructed in comparison with the cost of those built some years since, is causing some uneasiness. The expected success of the prismoidal road to Sonoma, taken in connection with the rapid increase of narrow gauge roads, must seriously affect the value of a great deal of railroad property. An instance of the reduction in cost above mentioned is furnished by the Columbus and Toledo Railroad, a wide gauge road, with first-class grades, alignment, rails, etc., and with the rails one-half steel. This road is now approaching completion at a cost of $15,000 per mile.—S. F. News Letter.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.—The annual meeting of the congregation of the St. Andrew's (Presbyterian) Church was held last evening, where the tenth annual report of the managers was submitted and adopted. According to this report, the financial affairs of the Church were never in so satisfactory a condition before. The Sabbath collections exceeded those of any previous year by $68.78 and the pew rents by $211.75. It may be stated that the Sabbath collections amounted to $1,398.87, being an average of $27 per Sabbath. It is truly gratifying to find the affairs of the Church in so prosperous a condition.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Earnest Picht died very suddenly yesterday morning. At 6 o'clock he was well and apparently hearty as ever. He was then taken with a violent coughing and in an hour was dead. Mr. Picht was senior member of the firm of Picht & Mehlhorn, brewers, and was brother-in-law of Mr. Schmieg, leaving a wife and five children. Deceased was a German by birth, was 52 years of age, and was buried to-day. A number of flags were lowered to half-mast yesterday in respect to his memory. —Seattle Tribune.

SEATTLE COAL SHIPMENT.—In August the Seattle and Renton companies shipped 9,427 tons. The Talbot mine being still under water no coal was shipped by that company. The shipment for 1875 was 70,157 tons. This amount is slightly exceeded for the eight months of 1876. The Tribune predicts that the Seattle shipments for the current year will total 120,000 tons, and the shipments from Bellingham Bay 30,000.

THE ELIZA ANDERSON.—This steamer arrived here at 4:30 yesterday afternoon from Olympia and ports on Puget Sound bringing 200 sheep, 5 horses and the following passengers: Miss Bickford, Mrs. McKay, Mr. Barnes, Thos. H. Dixon, G. Harris, J. G. Swan, Jos. Wilson, Mr. Raney, Mr. Price, Miss L. Hastings. The Anderson will return at 11 o'clock this morning.

A HEAVY SHOT.—A large blast of giant powder fired yesterday to remove a mass of rock near Spratt's wharf hurled an immense piece of rock a distance of three or four hundred feet. The rock fell on the upper deck of the steamer North Pacific—lying at the wharf for repairs—crushing through the wood-work and finding its way into one of the staterooms. Fortunately no one was injured.

THE mail steamship City of Panama left Port Townsend at 5 o'clock yesterday morning for Nanaimo where she will take on board 1500 tons of coal, arriving here on Sunday evening or early on Monday morning bound for San Francisco.

MACOUN, the botanist, who accompanied the Pacific Railway survey, has gone to Harvard College, Boston, with about 1,000 plants gathered by him on his tour across the continent, with the object of comparing his classifications with those of the college.

A BAZAR in aid of the Reformed Episcopal Church will shortly be held.

CITY POLICE COURT.

[Before His Honor H. C. Courtney.]

SEPTEMBER 5th, 1876.

Richard Stokes appeared on remand charged with assaulting Mrs. L. Johnson,

Mrs. Bourdet sworn, deposed that on the night of the alleged assault the defendant in whose house she lived told her that Mrs. Johnson had taken a pillow from one of the rooms and she—witness—said that she was not responsible for that. She subsequently went to Mrs. Johnson's house and remained there that night, and when in bed with her children about half-past ten or eleven o'clock, she heard defendant come to the door. Mrs. Johnson said she had lost the key and could not let defendant in. He said he wanted his pillow and then some one raised the window; could not say if it was defendant or prosecutrix. When defendant got in there was scuffling and witness jumped out of a window and stayed there till Stokes went away. After he had gone Mrs. Johnson had a good laugh over it and she—witness—went to bed.

The witness, who is a white woman about 25 years old, appeared in the box with two small children in her arms. The defendant conducted his own case and after, as previously intimated to the Court, asking the prosecutrix some very disgusting questions requested his Honor to "weigh the subject nicely."

The Court signified its intention of doing so and said that the weight of evidence was very much against defendant. His Honor regretted that he could not believe all the evidence of the last witness, for it appeared to him that she, living in defendant's house, had been abused by him and had gone to the house of the prosecutrix for refuge and protection, but had since been instructed what to say by defendant. There could be no doubt defendant had committed an assault and as there was too much abuse of females going on his Honor was determined to put a stop to it. The statute permitted him to sentence defendant to 6 months imprisonment with or without hard labor, a fine of $100 or both, and in default of payment an additional term of 6 months' imprisonment. The course pursued by the defendant had only aggravated the matter; if he had pleaded guilty instead of trying to malign the character of the prosecutrix it would have been much better for him, and if he had been conscientious he would have asked Mrs. Bourdet to appear as a witness instead of obliging the Court to subpœna her. His Honor regretted the witness had not given her evidence as she ought to have done.

Mrs. Bourdet—Your Honor I've told no lies.

The Court,—Well, I regret I cannot think so. Defendant, the sentence of this Court is that you pay a fine of $40 or in default two months' imprisonment with hard labor.

The defendant immediately paid the fine and left.

Louisa Heal, a girl of about 15 years of age was charged with vagrancy.

Officer White deposed that on Monday night defendant was on Johnson street behaving in an unbecoming manner, putting her arms around men's necks, &c. At about 12 o'clock she came out of a squaw dance house and used very abusive language; she was slightly intoxicated and was creating a disturbance.

Defendant had no excuse to offer and was sentenced to a fine of $25 or in default 1 months' imprisonment with hard labor.

Patrick O'Dwyer was charged with vagrancy.

Inspector Bowden deposed defendant was a constant trouble to the police. He had no home, no visible means of existence, but begged bits from those he met and got drunk. Last night he was found drunk in an indecent predicament on the sidewalk.

The defendant pleaded very earnestly for another chance, said he would leave the town and go to New Westminster or Esquimalt and never get drunk again; but His Honor thought that the people of New Westminster did not want him until the whiskey was out of him, so the Court sent him to jail for a week to attain that end.

Several Indian cases were dealt with summarily.

OUR RAILWAY EXCITEMENT.—This is how they got the news at Toronto:—"A dispatch from Victoria, Vancouver Island, says: There is much excitement in this city over the railroad question. Lord Dufferin remarked to a popular deputation that the overland railway scheme was about abandoned, and that the only point to be considered was the question of compensation. The people here are much dissatisfied and disappointed at the result of the interview, and it is feared that unpleasant consequences will ensue. Our citizens declare they were inveigled into the Confederation with promises which Canada did not mean to fulfil."

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTOR.—We see by a copy of the Little Rock (Arkansas) Star which some friend has sent us, that our former fellow citizen, Mr. M. W. Gibbs, is a candidate on the Republican ticket for the position of Presidential elector. Mr. Gibbs is a man of more than ordinary ability, and will undoubtedly "make his way" in the South.

FOR THE EAST COAST.—The steamer Cariboo-Fly sailed at 7 o'clock yesterday morning for Nanaimo and East Coast Settlements with H. M. mails, freight, and the following passengers: Mr. and Mrs. C. Prevost, Mr. and Miss Nicholson, Messrs. Jay, Fawcett, Andrews, and 3 Sisters of St. Ann.

IN conformity with a Resolution passed by the Municipal Council on the 30th August, inst., the public are hereby notified that any person or persons causing any combustible matter to be ignited out of doors after sunset, will be proceeded against under Section 8 of the Municipal By Law, No. 1, for the protection of the City against fire, Oct 3rd, 1862. **

SPENCE'S ROCK.—Mr. Spence is testing the large caisson, erected for the purpose of raising the fragments of rock blasted by him some time since.

It is rumored that Senator Brown will build the Pacific Railway himself, in order to get the Globe into British Columbia before breakfast.—Hamilton Spectator.

THE steamer Etta White will sail for Nanaimo early this morning.

SILKS JUST RECEIVED.—Black and colored gros grains and fancy silks, unusually cheap.—Thos. Wilson & Co. *

Victorians at San Francisco.

A correspondent writing on August 30th says:—One meets Victorians at every turn and the majority show signs of prosperity. Bill Plaskett is down from Mariposa County, where he is agent for the Pioche estate and has valuable mining interests. One often meets with the familiar and jovial countenance of Judge Cox. He will probably shortly join Plaskett as superintendent of one of his mining claims. C. A. Bayley still thrives on Clay street and deserves all the prosperity he commands. His house is the general rendezvous of quondam B. C.'s, who are proud to see him battle for his country's dignity and his own. It is delightful to watch him sling his whiskey, which he does with all the importance and grace of the average Frenchman, who, it is said, never performs the most trifling act in life but is certain that the eyes of Europe are upon him. Your ex-Premier—a very healthy looking invalid by the way—is still with us and shows no present sign of joining his Sovereign in the North. Selim Franklin is here and the grand air of old age, glasses and general graceful and aristocratic deportment indicate prosperity. Pocock has a good situation at Donohue's Bank.

CORRECTION.

EDITOR COLONIST:—An opportunity to correct the report of my remarks at Cedar Hill having been denied me by the Standard newspaper, I am compelled to request that in justice to Mr. Robson and myself you will permit the following to appear in your columns.

I am, yours truly,
T. B. HUMPHREYS.

EDITOR STANDARD:—In your report of my speech at Cedar Hill Saturday last, I am made to say "that Smithe and Tolmie assisted the traitor Robson—a man who was detested by every right-thinking person in the Province—who had even lately tried to prevent an expression of public opinion on the Railway and other matters."

As I used no such language, and as I am not aware that Mr. Robson is a traitor, or is detested, or that he tried to prevent an expression on the Railway question, I am sure you will set me right. What I did say was, "That on 12th March, 1875, I introduced a resolution for the purpose of getting the House to affirm the principle of affording protection to farmers.

"That Mr. Robson—pledged to support the Canadian Tariff, and an opponent to protection and the B. C. Tariff—moved an amendment to my resolution in order to kill it. That he succeeded, and was assisted by Messrs. Smithe and Tolmie, whose votes it was difficult to reconcile with their pledges previously made to their constituents." Yours,

T. B. HUMPHREYS.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO LETTER.

(FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, August 28, 1876.

The Fair of the Mechanics' Institute, now in the third week of its Exhibition, can hardly be pronounced a success. The usual number of sentimental misses with their attendant swains promenade the spacious pavillion listening to the really excellent music of the band, or to the more attractive music of each other's voices. Up to last Friday, there was a diminution of $19,300 in the receipts as compared with those of an equal period last year. One wearies of the ceaseless "investigations" in public matters so entirely barren of results. A great hue and cry is made of crookedness in every direction. Testimony is published sufficient to damn any official—and there the matter drops. On the arrival of the Colorado from China one of our daily papers published a column of testimony, giving names and dates with great minuteness, which affirmed that 16 Chinese women, and $60,000 worth of silk and opium were smuggled ashore in the night, in a Whitehall boat, furnished by a revenue officer whose name was given. We hear no more of it. Possibly because so many are implicated in similar frauds that no one dare even deny it, for fear of opening matters that had better be kept as quiet as possible. The most ludicrous phase of the investigation mania is developed in the so-called Court Martial, convened to discipline Col. Wason for certain remarks derogatory to the dignity of his Brigade Commander, Gen. McComb, of the National Guard Militia. Not satisfied to await the slow progress of the law, the parties engaged in a free fight outside the court room door, resulting in sundry black eyes and battered noses, and forever vindicating the valor of the contestants in the eyes of an admiring public.

The Opera House troubles, though not at an end, are assuming a form that will result in benefit to the public manager Bert having sold his lease to Mark McDonald, who will reduce the price of admission, do away with the extra charge for reserved seats, and put it under new management with many improvements in scenery and stage adjuncts.

Wheat continues to arrive slowly, and from present appearances the concerted action of the grain growers will succeed in breaking one of the most oppressive rings on the coast. There are at present 47 ships in port to be loaded by them before the lay days expire. If not loaded before the middle of September most of these ships will be subject to $100 a day demurrage, which is not a pleasant prospect for them. These ships are chartered at rates varying from £3 5s. to £3 10s. Meantime free vessels are coming into port ready to take grain at reasonable rates, and the prospect is favorable for the farmers to be rid of this grinding monopoly.

Royalty proverbially has its disquietudes, and the railroad kings find that they make no exception to this rule. While the Cohen case drags its slow length along, and the law's vexatious delays keep the case still before the public, a new grief comes to harass Mr. Chas. Crocker, in the shape of a contumacious citizen, by name Nicholas Yung. Mr. Crocker, desiring to erect a palatial residence on the summit of California Street hill obtained possession of an entire block with the exception of a small lot owned by the contumacious citizen aforesaid on which stands a small dwelling. Crocker offered his Yung friend $6,000. The undertaker (for such is his occupation) demanded $12,000, in accordance with his custom of putting on screws. Crocker offered $9,000. really a large price for the lot, but it was refused and then came open war. Crocker erected a fence so high and so close that Yung might imagine himself in one of his own coffins minus the cover. Per contra Yung promises to establish a Chinese wash-house on the premises, affording unlimited facilities for cleaning the dirty linen of the Rail Road Company.

The status of the National Gold Bank is again brought before the public by the answer of Cashier D. W. C. Thompson to certain charges brought against him by the Directors of the Bank. It might be summed up in the expressive phrase we sometimes hear, "you're another." Thompson does not deny the fact that the funds of the bank were diverted from their proper channels by him, but accuses the directors themselves of the same practice, and of additional misconduct, which reads, according to the common understanding of the English language, very much like perjury. In view of this and other similar developments, one hardly wonders at the assertion made not long ago by an Eastern gentleman, that there was "not a bank in San Francisco that did a legitimate banking business."

CHINA AND JAPAN.

China.

Great destitution prevails in Shantung, Chihli and the adjacent provinces, thousands perishing from starvation.

The members of Her Majesty's diplomatic and consular services have erected a monument in the narthex of the cathedral at Shanghai, in memory of the late Margary, who was murdered by the Chinese.

The troops at Tengyueh Ting have revolted and killed the Chen-t'ai and several other officials, and are devastating the country around. At Sze-chuan the Government has ordered the troops to punish the people who refused to pay the extra grain tax. Thousands have been killed, and great excitement prevails.

The rain, so long and earnestly prayed for at Peking, fell at length on July 8th in violent torrents, flooding the streets and courtyards to an unusual degree, and rendering for a time the roadways almost impassable.

A large fire broke out in Foochow on the night of July 16th in the suburb between the south and west gate of the city. Over 600 houses were destroyed and much valuable property, including a small quantity of tea. More than 40 persons were killed.

Lovers of the horrible have lately had fine opportunities for gratifying their penchant at Canton. The execution ground has been in requisition a good deal recently, the local authorities having received orders to decapitate several batches of land pirates. A good number of foreigners availed themselves of the opportunity of witnessing the Chinese method of administering capital punishment. The ground was like a shamble, as many as half a score being executed at one time.

The Shanghai Courier, speaking of the murder of Christians in Ning-Knoh Fu, reported a few weeks since by cable, says no definite news had been received in regard to the massacre. Rumor ran that at the place referred to, where there is a large chapel belonging to the Catholics, a crowd of 1000 soldiers assembled while the congregation were at worship, and, under the guidance of officials, surrounded the building and threw in several bags of gunpowder, each having a slow match attached burning. A scene of indescribable confusion of course ensued, and as some of the unfortunate people rushed out they were brained at the door by the soldiery.

Japan.

No rain had fallen in some of the provinces for a hundred days, and the natives were offering daily prayers and sacrifices to bring it.

A rumor has been making the rounds of the native papers to the effect that the Government is about to prohibit all business partnership associations between natives and foreigners.

The late Governor of the Aichi-ken has instructed the people under his jurisdiction to cut their hair in the European style. But most of the lower class have shaved their heads quite bare. Mr. Shimadzu has lately had his hair cut in European style; and walks the streets carrying a foreign cane in his hand.
